

#13

New angles to the world of Fakes and Forgeries.

Forged Faroe Islands #1 on 1919 postcard to Denmark
Geoffrey Noer

Great Britain - Postal stationery fakes
Alan Huggins

The last letter dispatched from the French post office of Yokohama, and its hapless trips
Jun Ichi Matsumoto

A forged cancel attributed to Spiro
Hans J.A. Vinkenborg

The engraved forgeries of Sicily
Carl Walske

Forgeries in Maximaphily
Jos Wolff

The Prosser fantasies
Charles J. G. Verge

Some Brazilian fakes and forgeries
Paulo Comelli

The Great Britain 1883 high values on blued paper - A story of forgery and deceit
Trevor I. Harris

Issues of the independence of Portugal 1926 -1928
Pedro Vaz Pereira

About the Homonnay cancellations shown in FEPAPOST'94
Hendrik W. van der Vlist

Forgeries of Norwegian first day covers - The "1975-forgeries"
Peer-Christian Ånensen

A somewhat early, or very late, Kurland letter
Harry v. Hofmann

The Perkins Bacon 3 pence on fourpence stamp
Anthony D. Presgrave

Designs, Proofs, Essays
Jean-François Brun

The faker who shot himself in the foot
Robin Gwynn

Cancellation manipulations
Roland Frahm

Elementary analysis of the Richardson inks
Robert P. Odenweller

Great Britain postal stationery - A W. H. Smith & Son advertising collar mystery
Alan Huggins

Philippines: The emission 5 & 10 cuartos 1858-1862
Eduardo Escalada-Goicochea

Great Britain medicine tax - Forgeries of the engraved issues
Chris Harman

Misuse of genuine cancels - Examples from previous Yugoslavia
Jovan Velickovic

Ecuador: The Seebeck 1894 reprinted card
Bernie Beston

Most seductive double frankings
Michèle Chauvet

The Lowden forgery - The full story told for the first time
Trevor I. Harris

The forgeries of general Balbo's 1933 flight from Newfoundland
Richard Gratton

The "Un Pranc" error
Raymond Goebel

Modern stamp forgeries of Great Britain
Hendrik W. van der Vlist

Mixed frankings Belgium & France
Jan Huys

The first "forgers": Philip Spiro, Hamburg
Wolfgang Maassen

A great Heligoland cover is lost for the future
Lars Peter Svendsen

Fight against fakes and forgeries on internet sales
Andrew M. T. Cheung

New aspects of identifying the Slovenian 15 and 20 kronen forgeries
Per Friis Mortensen

Order online at: www.ffejournal.com

Price € 60 (prepayment, postage included).